CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

By Appointment.

Middle Temple Lane. Gray's Inn, Lincoln's Inn, the Inner Temple and the Middle Temple are the four Inns of Court, and the two latter are the most interesting historically of all. The Temple was originally the abode of that military Religious Order who moved here from Holborn in 1184 and attained to great power and riches during the Crusades. Later, the Temple lapsed to the Crown, and in 1609 was by Royal Decree made over to the lawyers. The picturesque Gateway leading to the Middle Temple was built by Wren. It bears the badge of the Templars—the Lamb with the Cross.
